

Guest Accommodation Guide

Fulham Palace, Bishop's Avenue, London SW6 6EA

Saturday 26 June 2027

I TWO THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE BOOKING

1 Book early — Wimbledon starts two days after the wedding. The 2027 Championships run 28 June – 11 July, with qualifying at Roehampton the week before. Our wedding falls on the arrival weekend, so hotels and Airbnbs across south-west London — especially Putney, Wandsworth, Southfields and Wimbledon — will be priced up and heavily booked. Rooms for June 2027 are bookable now. Aim to have something confirmed by October 2026 at the latest; earlier is better south of the river.

2 Ignore the Premier Inn at Putney Bridge. It closed permanently in June 2026, but it still appears on old maps and hotel lists. It will not reopen for the wedding, and the new hub by Premier Inn planned for Putney High Street is not expected until 2028 at the earliest. Neither is an option.

II GETTING TO AND FROM FULHAM PALACE

The venue is a 10–12 minute walk from Putney Bridge station (District line) through Bishops Park, or 15–20 minutes from Putney mainline station (South Western Railway from Waterloo and Clapham Junction) across Putney Bridge. Buses 74, 220 and 430 run along Fulham Palace Road, stopping a few minutes from the gates, and the 22 terminates at Putney Common nearby.

Getting home at midnight matters more than getting there. All guests must leave the venue by midnight — this is a strict venue rule — and there is no Night Tube on the District line, with last trains leaving around midnight to half past. Pre-book a taxi for a midnight pickup rather than trying to hail one on the night; the venue explicitly takes no responsibility for taxis. Anywhere on the District line, or within walking distance, makes the end of the night much easier.

III WALKING DISTANCE FROM THE VENUE

Aragon House, Parsons Green ARAGONHOUSES.W6.COM

A Grade II-listed Georgian pub with 15 individually designed boutique bedrooms, directly opposite Parsons Green and roughly a 15-minute walk from Fulham Palace. Air conditioning, Nespresso machines, interjoining rooms available for families, and dog-friendly. Parsons Green station is two minutes away if you'd rather not walk. With only 15 rooms this will sell out first — if you want it, book immediately. Expect roughly £180–250 a night.

Fulham Pier Hotel FULHAMPIERHOTEL.CO.UK

Thirteen riverside suites with views over the Thames, a short walk from the venue along the river — a genuinely special choice if you want to make a weekend of it. Expect from roughly £270 a night.

IV BUDGET — around £100–180 a night

The first two are a short, direct District line ride from Putney Bridge station, then the walk through the park; the two in Wandsworth are a short cab from the venue instead.

hub by Premier Inn London West Brompton PREMIERINN.COM

89 compact, modern rooms on Lillie Road, about 150 metres from West Brompton station — three stops from Putney Bridge. Rooms are small but clever and well reviewed; the best value-per-pound near the venue.

ibis London Earls Court ALL.ACCOR.COM

221 rooms near West Brompton station, so the strongest candidate if a large group wants to stay under one roof. Reliable, well reviewed, with a restaurant and bar on site.

Premier Inn Wandsworth Southside PREMIERINN.COM

A short cab ride from the venue across Wandsworth Bridge. Reliable and well-priced, in the standard dependable Premier Inn mould.

Holiday Inn Express Wandsworth IHG.COM

On Smugglers Way, with easy access to the river bus if you fancy arriving by water as well as by road. Modern and comfortable.

Premier Inn Hammersmith PREMIERINN.COM

In central Hammersmith, so it's a bus down Fulham Palace Road (74/220/430, about 15 minutes) or a 10-minute cab rather than the tube. A good fallback if the Earl's Court cluster fills.

V MID-RANGE — around £150–280 a night

The Lodge Hotel, Putney THELODGEHOTELLONDON.COM

A 73-room boutique hotel on Upper Richmond Road, three minutes from East Putney station, with a garden, restaurant and some parking. It's about a 25-minute walk to the venue across Putney Bridge, or a five-minute cab. The best “nice but not extravagant” option on the Putney side — but being south of the river it sits in the Wimbledon pricing zone, so book this one earliest of all.

DoubleTree by Hilton London Chelsea BOOKING.COM

172 refurbished rooms at Imperial Wharf, one minute from Imperial Wharf Overground and a 10-minute cab from the venue. The other realistic option for a group block, and a step up in comfort from the budget chains.

room2 Hammersmith ROOM2.COM

A design-led aparthotel on a quiet tree-lined street near Hammersmith station, where every room has a kitchenette. The most practical choice for families with young children or anyone staying several nights, at around £110–160.

Novotel London West, Hammersmith ALL.ACCOR.COM

630 rooms five minutes from Hammersmith station — by far the biggest hotel near the venue, so it will have availability after everywhere else has sold out. Comfortable rather than exciting; bus or cab to the venue as with the Hammersmith Premier Inn.

VI UPPER — from around £300 a night

The Ampersand Hotel, South Kensington AMPERSANDHOTEL.COM

A 111-room five-star Victorian boutique hotel one minute from South Kensington station, which is on the District line — about 15 minutes direct to Putney Bridge. Beautiful rooms, an excellent restaurant, and museums and Hyde Park on the doorstep for the rest of the weekend.

The Chelsea Harbour Hotel & Spa MILLENNIUMHOTELS.COM

An all-suite five-star on the marina at Chelsea Harbour with a spa, indoor pool and river views, one minute from Imperial Wharf Overground and a 10-minute cab from the venue. Every room is a suite, which makes it the natural choice for parents and anyone making a proper weekend of it.

VII AIRBNB — WHICH AREAS TO TARGET

FULHAM (SW6)

— first choice. Search around Bishops Park, Munster Village and Parsons Green. You can walk to the wedding and walk home at midnight, which no hotel below the top band offers. The area is full of four- and five-bedroom family houses that work brilliantly split between a group of friends and usually come out cheaper per head than any hotel on this list.

HAMMERSMITH AND BARONS COURT
(W6/W14)

Noticeably better value than SW6, one bus or a couple of tube stops from the venue, and less exposed to Wimbledon pricing than anywhere south of the river.

PUTNEY
(SW15)

Lovely and close, but it takes the Wimbledon premium hardest — if you want Putney, book it in 2026, not 2027.

WANDSWORTH TOWN AND EARLSFIELD
(SW18)

Cheaper again and about a 10-minute cab from the venue, with good rail links from Wandsworth Town. Avoid Southfields — it's the Wimbledon station and prices that week will be absurd.

CHISWICK
(W4)

Pretty and decent value, but there's no easy late-night route back, so budget for a cab each way.

Prices are indicative for a peak June Saturday and will rise as Wimbledon week approaches. Hotel details last reviewed August 2026 — worth a final check closer to the date.
